

Events 2009

Talentum Events organises approximately 60 events and seminars each year. The timely seminars are planned and carried out with a thorough knowledge of customers and an extensive network of expert consultants. Talentum provides interest groups with expert knowledge and offers partners an alternative advertising medium.

Talentum events are intended to assist our partners in creating customer experiences that will join products and brands with customers and various interest groups. As a partner in Talentum Media events, you will enrich your company's traditional marketing strategy with experiential marketing activities. Marketing and targeting – where your customers are. For more information, please contact our event professionals at Talentum Media.
